BRAGG IN THE FIELD.

A reporter of the St Louis Globe lately interviewed Gen. Bragg, who was in that city, on the subject of the battle of Chickamauga, and the many disputed points concerning it. Next to Vicksburg, this battle, in which Gen. Bragg commanded the Confederate forces, was the most important in the Southwest. It appears that he had not really as many men in his command as has since been supposed. He went into the battle with 35,000 and before 8 o'clock in the morning he had lost 17,000 of them. Of these, over 12,000 were killed and wounded. The Federal loss was also very great. Gen. Bragg is represented as emphatic in his statement, that he could not have followed up his victory by capturing the Federal army, which he estimates as two to one or more than his own. He promised the Globe reporter to write a more accurate statement of the matter when he reaches his home and has access to his papers and documents.

Our minds are like ill-hung vehicles—when they have little to carry they raise a prodigious clatter; when heavily laden they neither creak nor rumble.

ANACT

To amend chapter 32 of the Act of Assembly known as "Battle's Revisal," which chapter is entitled "Crimes and Punishments," and chapter 33, "Battle's Revisal," entitled "Criminal Proceedings."

WHEREAS, Great expense is incurred by Counties, and sometimes unnecessary hardships are imposed upon persons charged with petty offences by reason of the long time between their imprisonment upon the charge and a regular term of the Superior Court of the County; and whereas, it is desirable for these and other reasons to increase the present jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace to hear and finally determine criminal charges and actions for petty offences within the Constitutional limits: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact.

SECTION 1. Chapter thirty-two of the Act of Assembly, known as "Battle's Revisal," which chapter is entitled 'Crimes and Punishments,' shall be amended as follows:

SEC. 2. Section forty-three shall be amended by adding thereto as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 3. Section forty six shall be amended by adding thereto as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 4. Section eighty five shall be amended by adding thereto as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 5. Section one hundred and two shall be amended by adding as follows: When the owner or one of the owners of an estate in possession, the party injured shall complain of the injury before a Justice of the Peace of the County in which the offence is charged to have been committed before the regular term of the Superior Court of the County next after the commission of the offence, and shall fail to state in his complaint that the damage exceeded ten dollars, the punishment, upon conviction of the offence, shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 6. Section one hundred and eleven shall be made to read as follows: In all cases of assault without intent to kill, and when no deadly weapon has been used and no serious damage done, and when the party injured shall make complaint before a Justice of the Peace for the County in which the offence shall have been committed, and shall ask the Justice finally to determine the action, in such case the punishment shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 7. Section one hundred and twelve shall be amended by adding as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 8. Section one hundred and sixteen shall be amended as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 9. Section one hundred and seventeen shall be amended by adding as follows: The punishment for this offence shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 10. Section one hundred and nineteen shall be amended by striking out the following words: 'Or both in the discretion of the Judge of the Superior Court or Justice of the Peace before whom the case shall be tried.'

SEC. 11. Section one hundred and twenty shall be amended by striking out the same words as are stricken out in section one hundred and nineteen.

SEC. 12. Section one hundred and thirty-nine shall be amended by striking out all thereof after the words 'shall be deemed a vagrant and guilty of a misdemeanor,' and inserting in place of the words stricken out: The offence shall be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars or by imprisonment not to exceed one month, and it shall be cognizable only before a Justice of the Peace of the county in which it is committed, who may release the party on his giving a recognizance, with or without security, for his industrious and peaceable deportment for one year or less from the date thereof or may also impose on him a punishment not to exceed that above mentioned.

SEC. 13. Chapter thirty-three of an act known as 'Battle's Revisal,' shall be amended by adding thereto as follows: Justices of the Peace shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine in the manner prescribed in this chapter, 'Criminal Actions,' for the offences described in section twenty (20), forty-three (43) forty-six (46), eighty-five (85), one hundred and two (102), one hundred and eleven (111), one hundred and sixteen (116), one hundred and seventeen (117), one hundred and nineteen (119), one hundred and twenty (120) and one hundred and thirty nine (139), of chapter (32) of 'Battle's Revisal,' whereby said chapter thirty-two (32) as amended by this act, or by any other law now in force, or which may hereafter come in force, the punishment of the offence cannot exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month.

SEC. 14. Section one hundred and nineteen (119) of said chapter thirty-three shall be amended by striking out the following words: 'That the offence was committed in his township.'

SEC. 15. This act shall take effect from and after its ratification.

In General Assembly read three times and ratified this 16th day of February 1874.

LANGUAGE OF THE CLOUDS.—The colors of the sky at particular times afford wonderfully good evidence. Not only does a rosy sunset presage fair weather and a ruddy sunshine, but there are other tints which speak with equal clearness and accuracy. A bright yellowish sky in the evening indicates wind; a pale yellow, wet; a neutral gray color constitutes a favorable sign in the evening and an unfavorable one in the morning. The clouds are full of meaning in themselves. If their forms are soft, undefined, and feathery, the weather will be fine. If the edges are hard, sharp and definite, it will be foul. Generally speaking, any deep, unusual lines betoken wind and rain, while the more quiet and delicate tints bespeak fair weather.

JOAN D'ARC'S ARMOR.—A historical curiosity has just been placed in the Museum of the Invalides, namely, the suit of armor which Charles VII presented to Joan of Arc, and which the heroine went to deposit at St. Denis after having been wounded under the walls of Paris. It is composed of steel plates, weighs about fifty pounds, and in every respect resembles the one in the Pierrefonds collection, which the Maid of Orleans wore at the moment when she fell into the power of the enemy in making a sortie from Compeigne.

In his late book Gen Joseph E. Johnson says: The Confederate States began the war with 120,000 arms of obsolete models, and 700 of recently adopted weapons, 'rifled muskets,' and the United States with about 450,000 of the old and all of the modern arms that had been made since the adoption of the new model, about the middle of General Pearce's administration, when Jefferson Davis was at the head of the War Department, except, however, the 700 held by the Confederacy. The equipped field batteries and fixed ammunition of all kinds were in the North, as well as the establishments for the manufacture of arms and preparation of ammunition, except that at Harper's Ferry, which, being on the border, was abandoned by the United States, after an attempt to destroy it, which left little beside the machinery.

As a travelling party were riding through Palestine the attention of a certain American was called to the reputed seat of Moses' tomb. 'Moses who?' says Jonathan. 'Why the great Moses who led the Children of Israel through the desert for forty years.' 'How far is that?' 'Three hundred miles, maybe.' Upon which the American remarked: 'The Chicago and Northwestern would have taken 'em thro', I guess, in eight hours.'

How rapidly the organization of the farmers is proceeding may be learned from the January circular of the National Grange. Since the middle of December there was an increase of 1,506 Granges and the whole number is now over 11,000. The largest increase took place in the former slave States, where 565 new Granges were formed, against 459 in the Western States. The national membership of the Granges now numbers 780,000.

It is said that the simplest method of sharpening a razor is to put it for half an hour in water to which one-twentieth of its weight of muriatic or sulphuric acid has been added, then lightly wipe it off, and, after a few hours, set it on a bone. The acid here supplies the place of a whetstone by corroding the whole surface uniformly, so that nothing further than a smooth polish is necessary. The process never injures good blades, while badly hardened ones are frequently improved by it, although the cause of this improvement remains unexplained.

A lady in the county was unwise enough to fit out her boy of five with fishing tackle. Soon she heard a shout from the barn yard, and found that one of her very best hens had swallowed the hook and was fast winding up the line in her crop. Of course she was greatly troubled, 'but all the comfort she got from the young fisherman was this: 'Don't worry, mother. I guess she'll stop when she gets to the pole.'

A lawyer in Bucyrus, Ohio stated at a temperance meeting that, having seen his father killed by the carelessness of a drunken man, he took a solemn oath never to drink again. 'Since that time,' he continued, 'I have never broken that oath, at least not very much.'

LONGFELLOWS' POEMS.

It is always interesting to know under what circumstances a poet has framed an immortal poem or sonnet or song. As I happen to know something of the origin and birth of many of Longfellow's poems, let me divulge a few secrets in regard to them. The 'Psalm of Life' came into existence, on a bright Summer morning in July, 1838, in Cambridge, as the post sat between two windows at the small table in the corner of his chamber. It was a voice from his inmost heart and he kept it some time in manuscript, unwilling to part with it. It expressed his own feelings at that time, when he was rallying from the depression of a deep affliction, and he hid the poem in his own heart for many months. He was accused of taking the famous verse, 'Art is long and time is fleeting,' from Bishop's poem; but I happen to know that was not in his mind, and that the thought came to him with as much freshness and originality as if nothing had been written before. 'There is a reaper whose name is death' crystalized at once, without effort, in the poet's mind, and he wrote it rapidly down, with tears filling his eyes as he composed it. The fine ballad, 'The Wreck of the Hesperus,' was written in 1839. A violent storm had occurred the night before and as the poet sat smoking his pipe about midnight by the fire, the wrecked Hesperus came sailing into his mind. He went to bed, but the poem had seized him, and he could not sleep. He got up and wrote the celebrated verses. 'The clock was striking three,' he said, 'when I finished the last stanza.' It did not come into his mind by lines, but by whole stanzas, hardly causing him an effort, but flowing without hindrance.

One of the best known of all Longfellow's shorter poems is 'Excelsior.' The word happened to catch his eye late one Autumn evening in 1841 on a torn piece of newspaper, and straightway his imagination took fire at it. Taking the first piece of paper at hand, which happened to be the back of a letter received that night from Charles Sumner, Longfellow crowded it with verses. As first written down, 'Excelsior' differs from the perfected and published poem; but it shows in its original conception a rush and glow worthy the theme and the other. On a Summer afternoon in 1849, as he was riding on the beach, 'The Skeleton in Armor' rose as out of the deep before him and would not be laid. The story of 'Evangeline' was first suggested to Hawthorne by a friend who wished him to found a romance upon it. Hawthorne did not quite coincide with the idea, and handed the theme to Longfellow, who saw at once all the essential qualities of a deep and tender idol.

A BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.

A poor Arab travelling in the desert met with a spring of sweet sparkling water. Used as he was only to brackish wells, such water as this appeared to his simple mind worthy of a monarch, and filling his leather bottle from the springs he determined to go and present it to the Caliph himself.

The poor man travelled a long way before he reached the presence of his sovereign and laid his humble offering at his feet. The Caliph did not despise the little gift brought to him with so much trouble. He ordered some of the water to be poured into a cup, drank it, and thanking the Arab with a smile, ordered him to be presented with a reward. The courtiers around pressed forward, eager to taste the wonderful water; but, to the surprise of all, the Caliph forbade them to touch a single drop.

After the poor Arab had quitted the royal presence with a light and joyous heart, the Caliph turned to his courtiers and thus explained his conduct:

'During the travels of the Arab,' said he, 'the water in the leathern bottle became impure and distasteful. But it was an offering of love, and as such I have received it with pleasure. But I well knew that had I suffered you to partake of it, you would not have concealed your disgust, and therefore I forbade you to touch draught, lest the heart of the poor man should have been wounded.'

LAYING DOWN THE LAW.—A horse thief on trial at Hernando, Mississippi, pleading insane; ex-Governor Clarke, who was acting as District-Attorney, argued thus to the jury: 'If the prisoner is insane, he should be sent to Jackson to the lunatic asylum. If he is a thief he should be sent to the State penitentiary. If he is partly a thief and partly an idiot, he should be sent there to the State Legislature.'

Another paper says: It transpires that Mark Twain was a soldier, having served two weeks with Jeff Thompson in the rebel army in Missouri. That he never made much of a military record is explained in a letter which he has just written to Thompson. He says: 'We never won any victories to speaking of. We never could get the enemy to stay still when we wanted to fight, and we were generally on the move when the enemy wanted to fight.'

Money is the fool's wisdom, the knave's reputation, the poor man's desire, the covetous man's ambition, and the idol of all.

GEN. SCOTT.

How Gen. Scott Didn't Fight A Duel.

Many little incidents of his administration are on record. The following is among them:

While Gen. Scott was Governor of Kentucky, an insignificant individual having a desire to distinguish his prowess, pretending some offence, singled out Gen. Scott, to whom he sent a challenge. The old veteran very properly refused to notice the challenge. Meantime the braggart had been ostentatiously speculating on the occurrence in advance, not anticipating the turn it took. After waiting in vain for an acceptance, and not even receiving an answer, he went personally to demand an explanation.

'General Scott, you received my challenge?'

'Your challenge was delivered.'

'But I have neither received an acknowledgement or an acceptance of it.'

'I presume not, sir, as I have sent neither.'

'But of course you intend to accept?'

'Of course I do not.'

'What; not accept my challenge? Is it possible that you, General Scott, brought up in the army, declines a combat?'

'I do with you, sir,' coolly answered the hero.

'Then I have no means of satisfaction left but to post you as a coward.'

'Post me as a coward! Ha, ha, ha! Post away, sir; but if you do you will post yourself as a liar, and everybody will know it.'—[Reminiscences of ex-Gov. Charles Scott, in Vanceburg Kentuckian.

MAKING BURGLAR USEFUL.

A brave woman of Boston, who refused to have her name made public, was left in charge of several children last Thursday night, and, one of them being taken sick, she summoned a woman-servant to carry a prescription to an apothecary for some medicine, but the servant came, frightened out of her wits, saying that there was a burglar concealed in a certain closet. The woman went straight to the door, and said, If there is anybody in this closet, let him come out!' whereupon a big, sinister-looking negro stepped forth. The woman then, with the utmost coolness, handed him the prescription, saying: 'Take this to the nearest apothecary's and get it filled; there is a sick child in the house.' The black burglar left without a word. Meanwhile the woman, who became a little faint, called a neighbor. The latter was about to go to the apothecary's for the medicine, when the clerk called with it, saying that a negro had brought the prescription and then disappeared.

A man went into a butcher's shop, and, finding the owner's wife in attendance, in the absence of her husband, thought he would have a joke at her expense, and said: 'Madam, can you supply me with a yard pork?' 'Yes sir,' said she. And then, turning to a boy, she added: 'James, give that gentleman three pig's feet.'

An old lady hearing some one reading about a congressman-at-large, rushed to the kitchen door shouting 'Sarah Jane, Sarah Jane! don't you leave the clothes out all night; mind I tell you; for there's a congressman at large!'

If you are in a hurry, never get behind a couple that are courting. They want to make so much of each other that they wouldn't move quick if they were going to a funeral. Get behind your jolly married folks, who have lots of children at home, if you want to move fast.

A lady of Washington county, New York, is a mother of a large family of children, and they are all rather diminutive. A few days after the birth of the youngest, a little niece of the lady called to see the baby. After looking at the tiny specimen for a few minutes, the little girl said: 'Aunt Maria, don't you think it would be better to have less of 'em and have 'em bigger.'

A colored Mississippi legislator lately proposed a bill to make each member of the legislature, present and future, a bona fide attorney and counsellor at law. His reasoning was direct: 'For,' said he, 'if we know enough to make de law, why don't we practice 'em?' Sure enough, why not?

The new style of oath is out. Mr. Marrowfat ordered her husband to peel the onions for dinner before he left the house yesterday, and Mr. Marrowfat, bringing down his fist upon the table with much emphasis, observed, 'May I be cremated, Ma'am, if I do!'

Some members of Congress are of the opinion that Congress will adjourn about the 20th of June, while others are of the opinion that an adjournment will not take place until July.

A small boy arose at a Sunday-school concert and began quite glibly: 'A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell—and fell'—(there his memory began to fail him;—'and fell by the roadside, and the thorns sprang up and choked him.'

Hillsborough Recorder.

WEDNESDAY.....MAY 13, 1874.

FOR SUPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Col. Stephen D. Pool,

OF CRAVEN.

☞ In our local columns, we have devoted considerable space to the question of Municipal rights. We do not call attention to our treatment of the subject, but to the subject itself, which is one of paramount interest to every city, town, and village in the State. The press of the State should give the matter grave consideration. The evils of undefined jurisdiction have no uncertain significance here. They have been felt by this community in their full weight during the past year. Other communities may become involved in the same embarrassments.

A remedy must be sought for.

MAGISTRATES' JURISDICTION.

On our first page will be found the act of the last session of the legislature, the effect and object of which is to enlarge the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace. We publish it for the benefit of Magistrates and others, who have not got access to the published laws of the session.

Attention has been more particularly called to it from the charge of Judge Tourgee at the last session of the Superior Court of Orange county. If the construction he places upon the law be correct, then the Act is the most extraordinary instance of legislative carelessness and oversight that has ever come under our observation. For it would declare that to be law which is not law, sets itself in opposition to the whole spirit and teachings of the common law, throws itself counter to all the enactments of previous statute law, and makes that a rule of action for the people what is opposed to every principle of peace and good order.

But we think the Legislature is innocent of any such folly. We think the law referred to admits of no such misconstruction, and that the interpretation is that of one who would make a sly fling at a Conservative Legislature, and bring its wisdom into ridicule.

The sole object of the law is to increase the jurisdiction of Magistrates, to expedite justice, to relieve the Superior Courts of the cognizance of an inferior grade of offences, and to diminish the costs of prosecution, both to offenders and to the public. But there is not one word in the act, so far as we can see, that repeals the common law cognizance of offences against the public peace, not a word which gives a license to violence or disorder.

Judge Tourgee says in his charge, that the remedy of justice for these offences (ordinary assaults and batteries or cases where injuries are merely temporary) must be sought at the complaint of the injured party, and that when complaint is not made, the offended law must sit with folded hands in impotent indignation. From what clause of the law does he draw this inference? Section 6 says 'in cases of assault without intent to kill &c., and when the party injured shall make complaint before a Justice of the Peace for the county in which said offence shall have been committed, and shall ask the Justice finally to determine the action, in such case &c.' Now it is evident that the italicised clause is intended to bring the case within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, as between the complainant and aggressor. The decision of the Magistrate may be pleaded in bar of any further action in the case. But suppose complaint is not made before a Magistrate. The offence against the law still remains, and the regular conservators of the peace are still as much bound to take cognizance of it as if the law under consideration had not been enacted. Grand Jurors are as strongly bound by their oaths as before. There is nothing in this law discharging them of their obligations. The preservation of the peace and quiet of society is as much embraced in its object as in any on the Statute book. Facilities for expediting justice cannot be construed into subterfuges for evading it. The well-being of society cannot tolerate the idea that the preservation of order be made dependent upon individual will. It is a novel spectacle truly, that two men may engage in a disgraceful brawl in the public streets, may batter every vestige of humanity out of each others faces, may shock every sentiment of public decency, may bring odium upon any community, and because one of them does not complain to a Magistrate, the outraged public can have no redress, and no security against the daily occurrence of such scenes.

Such would seem to be the teaching of the Court, but such we conceive, are not the teachings of this Statute.

Thermometer marked 88 here on Sunday.

NOMINATIONS.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, was nominated for Congress from the 3rd Congressional district at the Convention at Magnolia on the 6th inst., on the eleventh ballot. Great good feeling was exhibited, but the other gentlemen had warm friends who clung to them with tenacious fidelity.

There were put in nomination besides Col. Waddell, Hon. O. P. Meares of New Hanover, Robt. Strange of New Hanover, J. G. Scott of Onslow, W. C. Troy of Cumberland and A. D. McLean of Moore, McClammy of New Hanover, and McSween of Cumberland also received votes.

On the eleventh ballot, Waddell received a two thirds vote of the Convention, and was announced, amidst tremendous cheering, its nominee.

At the Judicial Convention for the 4th District held in Wilmington on the 4th inst. Col. A. A. McKay of Sampson was nominated as candidate for Judge, and Mr. W. S. Norment of Robeson for the Solicitorship.

At the Republican convention for the 5th District held at Warrenton on the 6th inst. J. C. L. Harris was nominated as candidate for the Solicitorship. The convention is said to have been very harmonious one.

OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

On Monday last the opposing candidates for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction met at Halifax, and had an animated debate. We are proud to learn from the Raleigh News, that Mr. Pool sustained himself with distinguished credit, fully sustaining the wisdom of his selection as the standard bearer of the Conservative party.

The main object of Mr. Pool in meeting Mr. Parnell at Halifax, was to draw out from this gentleman his views on the Civil Rights bill now before Congress.

This measure is so intimately associated with the life of the Common School system of the State, that a clear and unequivocal definition of views on the question must be had from every candidate. Yet Mr. Parnell would not give a satisfactory reply, and his embarrassment can well be conceived. If he declares for Civil Rights, which is certain death to free schools, he destroys himself in the West, where the white element preponderates. If he pronounces against Civil Rights, the East is lost to him, for there the negro element prevails.

But he must answer, and on either horn of the dilemma, Col. Pool will catch him.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

If the late town elections are to be taken as a test of party strength, the Conservatives show decided gains. In most of the towns, party lines were strongly drawn, and therefore there can be no mistake in the indications. In other places local issues were introduced, while in others there was little interest manifested by either side.

Raleigh elected a Radical Mayor, J. W. Holden, but gains 4 good conservatives on the Board of Commissioners.

In Goldsboro, the conservatives elect a Mayor and 3 out of 6 commissioners—a decided conservative victory.

In Wilmington, the conservatives elect 3 on the board of commissioners.

In Charlotte, the whole conservative ticket is elected.

Durham elects a full conservative board also.

Salisbury elects a conservative ticket.

Fayetteville elects conservative Mayor and 3 commissioners.

Greensboro elects the citizen ticket which appears to be mixed.

Jonesboro, all Conservative.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The delegates from the different townships of Orange county assembled in the Court House in Hillsboro on the 9th inst., and were organized by calling Sam. S. Claytor, Esq., to the chair.

John D. Cameron was appointed Secretary and C. B Green, assistant secretary.

Mr. Parish, chairman of the county Executive Committee was called upon for a report, and a plan of action. He had not prepared any special plan, but upon his motion the plan submitted by the Central Executive Committee for the State was adopted.

Mr. Parish stated that his existence as chairman of the county executive committee, had expired by limitation, and moved that the chairman of the convention appoint a new committee. The chairman, at a subsequent stage of proceedings, appointed as said committee: Messrs. C. E. Parish, Thomas Webb, A. W. Graham, C B Green and C E Smith.

On motion of Mr. Strudwick that the executive committee examine, and report at once on credentials.

The committee retired, and returned with a full list of delegates from each township, for which we have not space.

Considerable discussion was had on the mode of voting, and the rights of delegates. It was determined that each township was entitled to cast 5 votes irrespective of the number of each delegation present in the convention.

The delegation then retired, by townships for consultation.

Upon their return, the committee made their reports which were read by the Secretary.

The following gentlemen were found to have received a majority of the votes (40) and were declared nominated by the convention: M. Atwater for the House of Representatives, George Laws, Probate Judge, John Laws, Register, D C Parish, Treasurer, and John U Kirkland and J F Lyon commissioners.

The delegations retired for further consultation.

They report: J W Lutin nominated for H. of R., and Caleb Green commissioner and no other name in nomination had a majority of the votes cast.

To save further loss of time in balloting it was resolved, that W. N. Patterson, and N. P. Hall be declared the choice of this convention for the remaining number of the commissioners, and that T. J Wilson be declared the nominee for coroner and A M. Leathers for county surveyor.

The secretary also reported, that the committee by the requisite majorities recommend, that Calvin E. Parish, Esq. be recommended to the convention at Prospect Hill as its choice for Senator for the district, and that Josiah Turner Jr. be recommended to the congressional convention as the choice of this body for Congress, and John Kerr, as its choice for Judge. On motion of J. D. Cameron F. N. Strudwick was unanimously recommended as the candidate for the Solicitorship.

The chairman then, on motion proceeded to name the following delegates to the Judicial convention to meet at Graham on the 3rd of June: Matthew Atwater, Merritt Wheek, John D Cameron, Wm. Parrish, C B Green, James Blackwood, A W Graham U E Parrish and Thomas Webb and that any and all good conservatives of this county who chose to attend, be regarded as delegates.

To the congressional convention at Raleigh on the 2nd of June, the chairman appointed George Laws, A W Graham Thomas Webb, J D Cameron, James Lyon, J W Carr, Wm. Lipscomb, C B Green, W N Patterson, Thomas Ellis A M Leathers, James Blacknall, and other conservatives of the county who may be in attendance on the convention.

To the Senatorial convention at Prospect Hill, the following gentlemen were appointed by the chair: John U Kirkland, J S Carr, James Watson, A M Leathers, and Ad. Mangum, and the Secretary was authorized to name such others, present at the convention, that in his opinion might attend the convention, it being understood that the preference of this convention as expressed for C E Parrish as its nominee should be considered as obligatory upon such delegates.

On motion of A W Graham, the convention adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the recent action of the State Central Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, in putting in nomination for the office of Superintendent of Public Schools Col. S. D. Pool, of Craven, believing him eminently fitted, from his ability and high character, for that important and responsible position.

The convention then adjourned.

J. D. CAMERON, Sec.

The Secretary subsequently added to the list of delegates to the convention at Prospect Hill, the following gentlemen: Thomas J. Freeland, F N Strudwick, John McCracken, R H Hall, W J Gray, and such other good conservatives as may be present.

DEATH OF MRS. WORTH.

Mrs. Martitia Worth, widow of the late Governor Worth, died in Ashboro on the 4th inst. in the 68th year of her age. Her remains were interred in Raleigh.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE PAIN-KILLER,

Manufactured by

PERRY DAVIS & SON

HAS won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in medical preparations. The universality of the demand for the PAIN KILLER is a novel, interesting, and surprising feature in the history of this medicine. The Pain-Killer is now regularly sold in large and steadily increasing quantities, not only to general agents in every state and Territory of the Union, and every Province in British America, but to Buenos Ayres, Brazil, Uruguay, Peru, Chili and other South American states, to the Sandwich Islands, to Cuba and other West India Islands; to England and Continental Europe; to Mozambique, Madagascar, Zanzibar and other African ports; to Australia and Calcutta, Rangoon and other places in India. It has also been sent to China, and we doubt if there is any foreign port or any inland city in Africa or Asia, which is frequented by American and European missionaries, travelers or traders, into which the Pain-Killer has not been introduced.

The extent of its usefulness is another great feature of this remarkable medicine. It is not only the best thing ever known, as everybody will confess, for Bruises, cuts, burns, &c., but for Dysentery or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great cities of British India and the West India Islands and other hot climates, it has become the Standard Medicine for all such complaints, as well as dyspepsia, liver complaints, and other kindred disorders. For coughs and colds, canker, asthma and rheumatic difficulties it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing trials and testimony, to be an invaluable medicine. The proprietors are in possession of letters from persons of the highest character and responsibility, testifying in unequivocal terms to the cures effected and the satisfactory results produced, in an endless variety of cases by the use of this great medicine. That the Pain-Killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. It is sold in almost every country in the world, and is becoming more and more popular every year. Its healing properties have been fully tested, all over the world, and it need only to be known to be prized.

VALUABLE RAIL-ROAD PROPERTY FOR SALE.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Western District of North Carolina, at the April Term, 1874, at Greensboro, in a proceeding then and there pending in Equity, to foreclose a mortgage mentioned in the pleadings between

Henry Lewis and Hiram Sibly and others,—Plaintiffs,

The Western North Carolina Rail Road Co., [E. D.] Tod R. Caldwell, Rufus B. McAden, The First National Bank of Charlotte, John Rutherford, Hiram Kelly, Thomas G. Greenlee, Mary Carson, A. H. Erwin, N. H. D. Wilson, Assignee, R. M. Walker and others—Defendants.

The undersigned, Commissioners appointed by the Court of the said April Term thereof, will sell at the Court House door in the city of Salisbury, the 18th day of June, A. D. 1874,

At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, all the franchises, road-beds, rolling stock and property of every kind, nature and description belonging to the said

The Western North Carolina Rail Road Company,

mentioned and described in the said Decree.

The purchaser or purchasers will be required to pay to the Commissioners

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS IN CASH

On the day of sale, and will be given credit for the balance of the purchase money until Monday the 6th day of July, 1874, the first rule day of said Court, at Greensboro, N. C., next ensuing after the day of sale.

Those who purchase at said sale, provided they be holders of the bonds secured by the mortgage mentioned in the said Decree, may retain their shares of the purchase money, except as to the said sum of $10,000,00, by surrendering to the Commissioners an equal amount of said bonds.

The said Commissioners are authorized, as soon as the said sale shall be confirmed by the Court, to give immediate possession of the said Railroad, its property and effects of every kind and description; and all persons who may be in possession of the said Railroad or any of its property are commanded to surrender the same to the purchasers upon the production of the Commissioners deed to them.

This Road, when its connections shall be completed, will form one of the most in the entire South. Its length is 142 miles, of which 115 miles is complete, that is from Salisbury to Old Fort in McDowell county, at the Eastern base of the Blue Ridge; and the greater part of the remainder of the road is graded, or nearly so.

There has already been expended upon this Road, about $4,000,000,00. It is now sold to satisfy a debt of about $1,600,000,00—which constitutes the first lien upon the property. The Commissioners believe that the title of the purchaser will be good.

The Festival

On Friday night was a brilliant success if measured by the character of the attendance, the beauty of the floral decorations, and the surpassing elegance of the supper. Of its pecuniary results, we know nothing.

We tender our acknowledgements to the fair managers for courtesies which we assure them are highly valued.

Our want of space prevents farther notice

☞ The daily freight train on the Eastern division of the N. C. R. R. has been suspended for the present. The trains make tri-weekly trips on the old schedule.

☞ Col Geo. McCarley a native of this County was in Raleigh last week on his way to Washington in connection with the Arkansas troubles. He is a Senator in the Arkansas Legislature.

Mad Dog.

A mad dog was killed near the residence of Mrs Col Jones on Thursday last. We have not learned that he had bitten any other dog or animal.

E. B. Holden Esq. a prominent citizen of Pea Ridge, Caswell county died on Friday morning from congestive chill. He was stricken on Wednesday and never rallied from the attack. He was a brother of Ex. Gov Holden. He was an old, respected, typo and has many excellent qualities.

The Telegraph office at this place was closed on Friday, the rail road company declining longer to incur the expenses incident to its operations. It is a short sighted policy. The inconveniencies of the move were illustrated the very morning after the closing the mail train being delayed hours beyond its due time, and no information to be obtained.

A serious accident between here and the Shops would have been, without the prompt relief afforded through the use of the telegraph.

It is a step backward which must be retraced.

Superior Court.

There were omitted from our notice of the acts of the Superior Court last week the following items:

Robt Kennedy col. was sent to the Penitentiary for 2 years for larceny; Anderson Kelly col. 2 years for the same offence, and Smith Shepherd col. 1 year, same offence. Sheriff Hughes took them to Raleigh on Monday, but could not get accommodation for Shepherd, his sentence being for a time shorter than that required for the enjoyment of so high a privilege as a support at the public expense.

Tom Evans white who has been confined in the County jail since the last term of the Court for an assault and battery upon—Workman was discharged, having been pardoned upon a petition signed by prominent citizens here and endorsed by Judge Tourgee.

Our Town Election.

The Crescent got his returns of our affairs badly mixed. The board of Commissioner s elect is conservative with the exception of H. N. Brown ran on both tickets. The colored candidates Lewis Jenkins and Haywood Beverly so far from being elected, were badly beaten.

The prohibition ticket was beaten in Hillsboro 112 votes and in the township 181. Hillsboro did not vote for whiskey by a majority of 53. That was the whole vote for license in the township. Put on your specs, Mr. local of the Crescent.

Commander W. A. Kirkland, U. S. N. a native of this town is now on a visit to this state. He has just returned from Europe. He went out last year in command of the Store Ship supply, with contributions to the Vienna Exposition, and has been detained abroad to complete the duties of a very important Commission upon which he was placed by the American Government.

Pneumonia has prevailed to a very considerable, and to a somewhat fatal extent, among the colored population of this place during the spring. A few whites have been attacked, but only one death among them.

Repairs on the Presbyterian Church are nearly complete. The interior of the building has been remodelled to a considerable extent, the whole is white painted, and adorned by the addition of new and handsome chandeliers. Services in the church will soon be resumed.

Mr Bobbitt of the house of Rowland and Bros Norfolk tells us that business here has more the appearance of soundness and activity than in any place he has visited. That ought to encourage us. There is life in the old land yet.

It is no Wonder that invalids lose faith in all specifics, when so many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure for various diseases; but which when tried, are 'found wanting.' We have yet to learn however, of the first failure of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

MUNICIPAL RIGHTS.

Hillsboro has been [illegible] with a town government. Although provided with the requisite machinery, the motive power to carry it on was wanting, or subjected to be wasting. An unquestioning acquiescence in the exercise of the judicial functionary by the chief magistrate of the town on his docket head of a helpless board of commissioners. The consequence has been that while public order has been maintained to a remarkable degree, the outgrowths of the exceptionally excellent components of our population the materials [illegible] have been largely utterly neglected, and the ruin of a years suspension of imperative duties will in the future be the source of bitter regret, that the instincts of interest and self preservation had not sooner aroused the citizens from the apathy and indifference to their welfare which has been so patent to every body but themselves.

By the merest accident, and almost against the action of some of our most prominent citizens, a good board of Commissioners has been elected for the coming year. They were selected with special reference to their capacities for work, and we intend to hold them to the faithful discharge of their duties. They do not indeed need any spur. They need only to be assured of their rights and powers in the premises, and then we feel assured that will realize every hope based upon their energy and fidelity.

The Apology for past dereliction has been the deprivation of power by a judicial decision, and thereby the total vitiation of the charter of the town and the complete emasculation of the act of Incorporation.

The subject is a serious one and merits examination, and will justify the the recitation of causes and cases which have led to conclusions threatening such fatal results not only to us but to all other Incorporated cities and towns.

Some time in 1873 one Ben Howard a colored citizen of Hillsboro was arraigned before the Mayor on a charge of the violation of a town ordinance prohibiting profane swearing in public places. He was convicted. The offence was proven, and he was fined; whereupon his counsel, Thomas Webb Esq. took an appeal to the Superior Court.

Upon the hearing of the case at the Fall term 1873, Mr. Webb moved to dismiss the case upon the ground that offences against town ordinances were the subjects of civil action and therefore only cognizable by Justices of the Peace, and that the Mayor was not a Justice of the Peace. Mr. Webb cited the cases, which we name farther on.

H. K. Nash, Atty. for the Commissioners objected, that by virtue of the Act of Assembly, also cited in another part of this article, that offences against town ordinances were declared misdemeanors, and punished accordingly.

In reply, Mr. Webb said the Legislature had no right to delegate its powers. He cited several instances where the ordinances of a town prescribed penalties for acts which were not offences under the public laws, as for instance the offence at issue—swearing in public places—carrying fire through the streets &c. The Judge after an advisari ordered the case to be dismissed at the costs of the Town of Hillsboro.

Judge Tourgee ruled that the Magistrate had no jurisdiction in the case according to the ruling of the town of Edenton vs. Jacob Wool and George Crawlin (N. C. Rep 65 page 379.) That case took the ground "that the Legislature cannot confer on the mayor of a town the judicial powers of a Justice of the Peace in civil actions. The Constitution (Art. 4 Sec 33.) confers exclusive original jurisdiction on Justices of the Peace where the sum demanded does not exceed two hundred dollars.— The State Constitution requires that Justices of the Peace shall be elected by townships, whilst Mayors are elected only by towns and cities."

This decision was based upon the case of Wilmington vs. Davis (63 N C. Rep. page 583) which was cited and approved.

The case of Howard was technically a civil action arising out of the breach of a contract.

Judge Rodman in giving the opinion of the Court in the case against Wool and Crawlin, said that merely calling the chief officer of the town a Justice of the peace does not make him so in the sense of the Constitution. He must be elected by the qualified voters of township.

These decisions, if maintained, so effectually destroy the individuality of Municipal corporations, so completely blend their functions and existence with that of the surrounding country, and so thoroughly obliterate the limits of jurisdiction, that acts of incorporation at once become so much waste paper. They mean nothing, for they can do nothing, and can protect nothing. But they did mean something and very much, originally. Towns and cities have wants not felt by the country. They have offences which would be harmless acts in the country. They have duties which the inhabitants of the country are not called upon to perform. To provide for these wants, to punish these offences, to perform these duties, their chief officers must have special powers.

To meet the requirements of the emergency, the Legislature of 1871—'2 passed the following Act.

AN ACT

To Give the Chief Officers of the Cities and Towns the Criminal Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That it shall and may be lawful for the chief officers of all the cities and towns in this State, by whatever name or title such chief officers may be named, and it shall be their duty to have and exercise all the jurisdiction, powers and duties given to justices of the peace by chapter two, three and four of an act being chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the Acts of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, which is entitled, "Of proceedings in criminal cases," subject to the restrictions and limitations contained in those chapters: Provided, No such chief officer shall take jurisdiction of any offence committed beyond the limits of the city or town of which he is such chief officer. Nothing in this Act shall be held to impair the jurisdiction heretofore given to justices of the peace of the county.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons violating any ordinance of any city or town of this State shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 3. This Act shall go into effect on its ratification.

Ratified the 12th day of February, A. D. 1872.

This Act is now, in force, never having been called in question by any subsequent ruling of the Supreme Court. That it should remain undisturbed is of the utmost consequence to the well being of all our Incorporated towns. Cities, towns, and villages ask no special or exclusive privileges, but they do require special powers to carry out the purposes of corporate existence.

That any deprivation of these powers, or any doubt as to their exercise should exist, is only another evidence of the incongruity, and imperfection of a Constitution, which has been a very Pandora's box of evil to the State since its calamitous conception.

The Episcopal convention meets in Wilmington on the 20th inst. The vestry of St. Matthew's church have appointed the following delegates: Thomas H. Hill, James Webb Sr., Thomas Ruffin and J. D. Cameron.

☞ See change of schedule on the Salem branch of the N. C. R. R. There are now two daily passenger trains running.

The following gentlemen were in attendance upon the Court: Messrs. J. W. Norwood, John W Graham, H K Nash, Josiah Turner Jr, Thomas Webb, C E Parrish, Ike R Strayhorn, A W Graham, Jones Watson, J M Mason, and J M Alexander from Orange, and James A Graham, and S H Webb from Alamance.

The Hon. W A Graham appeared in the Court on Thursday morning.

Periodicals.

The May number of the Aldine has been received. We have no space for extended notice. It must suffice to say, that it is equally beautiful as any of its predecessors. The sketches of Florida and scenery are charming from their novelty: and characteristic delineations.

The periodical grows in value with each issue.

The American Farmer for May is on our table. Among other excellent things, the senior editor in a leading article on Manures, in which the use conjointly of the barn-yard manures and the fertilizers of commerce containing phosphoric acid, is most emphatically urged, remarks, that if he could impress upon the minds of the farmers, whom he has been serving for years, the importance of the facts are presented, he will consider that he has not lived has long life in vain.

SOUHERN MUSICAL JOURNAL.

In the April number of this interesting monthly, we find a choice selection of music, which must prove highly acceptable to its subscribers. The duett and chorus, 'Sweet Birds of Spring,' by A. B. 'Jolly Schottische,' of medium difficulty, and 'Pleasant Smile Waltz,' for little fingers, complete the musical contents. The remaining pages are filled with the usual variety of excellent reading matter interesting to musical readers. One dollar a year will secure the JOURNAL regularly, and those who are interested in musical matters, cannot do better than to subscribe at once. Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
